

Murieta- Common Area Keys Refundable Security Deposit Agreement

For the safety and security of our community, common area keys and driveway gate access devices are made available ONLY to properly identified and authenticated Murieta homeowners and/or their duly licensed documentable property management agents or renters. Common area keys and entry devices will not be provided to friends, relatives, and/or others not listed on the current tax roles as property owners.

As a non-profit, mutual benefit corporation, The Murieta Homeowners Association cannot engage in the sale of keys. Common area keys and driveway gates access devices are provided free to homeowners upon collection of a refundable security deposit. There may be a delay of several days to obtain keys.

This original form and all keys/devices must be returned to obtain security deposit refund. Security deposit refund will be made to the person making the initial deposit only.
